SULTAN SHARIF 'ALI

Kartini binti Haji Sapar

The Malay version of the book Sultan Sharif 'Ali was awarded the first prize in the Brunei History Illustration Story Writing Competition in 2014 organised by the Brunei History Centre. This book tells a story of an Emir of Makkah from Taif, Saudi Arabia named Sharif 'Ali bin Ajlan. After several months of sailing, Sharif 'Ali arrived in Brunei River when the situation in Makkah became increasingly chaotic, with robbery and murder. Sharif 'Ali had carried a sword known as "Si Bongkok" (the Curved Sword) with him. Sultan Ahmad (the second Sultan of Brunei) agreed to marry Sharif 'Ali to Princess Ratna Kesuma, his daughter. Sharif 'Ali became the third Sultan of Brunei as a result of the marriage, and known as "Sultan Berkat" (the Blessed Sultan).
